

Globalmail Business.

Your most convenient way to send international mail.

Whether you are mailing contracts, important paper work, confidential documents or your entire international business correspondence: GLOBALMAIL BUSINESS offers you a rapid, reliable way to move business forward.

You can save yourself a lot of work, time and money by using our GLOBALMAIL BUSINESS service. DHL picks up your unsorted international mail and Deutsche Post Global Mail organizes all the sorting, franking and delivery via their global postal network within the time frame you require.

Whatever your mail destination, together we will find the best way to get it there. Convenience as you've never seen it before.

No franking. No sorting. No hassles.

Unsorted collection by DHL together with your other Express shipments, mail handling and distribution by a letter specialist.

- Choose from Priority service for your urgent mail to be processed at our hubs first for fastest distribution (important for invoices, reminders, bank statements), OR Standard service for an efficient, cost-effective international mail solution (relevant to bulk mail such as mail shots, catalogues, information brochures etc.)
- No need to sort by format or destination - weighing and franking of individual pieces of mail carried out at state of the art facilities around the world
- Competitive pricing
- Simple tariff structure
- No pre-payment
- Free collective with your DHL shipments

Gain greater control over your business
